Becoming a Blue Hen

With your registration, you will soon receive an invitation to become a UD Guest Blue Hen! Check your email for a link from UD Guest Services. It may feel a bit like an entrance exam as you pass through two phases that ultimately grant you access to your coveted seat in the Institute. Here’s what you’ll need to do:

1. Open email from UD Guest Services
2. Click on Password Reset
3. Add three security answers
4. Check email for ticket
5. Enter the ticket number and reset password
6. We recommend using B00kworms2020 for a password.
7. Check your email for a message from Canvas Instructure. Click on the link.
8. Your username is your FULL EMAIL. NOT the numeric code provided. Enter your full email and password.
9. This should link you directly to the Canvas course in which you are enrolled for this training.

Workshops for Experienced Users

Our team and partners have learned great strategies for improving implementation and achievement! These workshops highlight new tools and resources, explain research supporting them, and offer time to collaborate. Every workshop provides you with a new tool to implement right away!

- Each grade-level cohort of teachers will receive 6 workshops tailored to grade-specific curriculum.
  - Word Study with Kim Wheedleton
  - Comprehension with Kat Papia
  - Grammar Instruction with Nicole Stauffer
  - Genre-based Writing with Tammy Steele
  - Co-teaching with Betsey Coleman
  - Differentiated Instruction with Jamie Bruno

- All administrators and coaches benefit from leadership workshops led by Sharon Walpole, Jaime True Daley, and special guest Kim Wagner!
  - Observing and coaching SR, ELA, and DI with an innovative configuration tool
  - What to look for in co-taught classes
  - Addressing student behavior and engagement

If you are interested in learning more about coaching opportunities or virtual supports, please email Jaime True Daley at jtdaley@udel.edu
